

Title IA: Title I Notification Letter

October 26, 2023

Dear Parent or Guardian,

The purpose of this letter is to notify you about important information regarding your child's school and to detail the protocol for measuring the academic performance of public schools in Nevada. The Nevada School Performance Framework (NSPF) is a critical part of the Education Performance System and utilizes a five-star classification system.

In December 2015, the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) was signed into law. Highlights of ESSA include holding all students to high academic standards and ensuring that the lowest-performing schools are provided the appropriate supports for school improvement. Information is provided below about our school.

School Specific Information

Cactus Park Elementary has received an index score of N/A based on the data from the previous school year. Our school received N/A stars based on data from the previous school year.

School Specific Actions

Cactus Park Elementary is using allocated Title I funding to:

Hire high quality teachers. The Title I funds are used to provide instructional time to work with qualified students. A priority at Cactus Park Elementary is to ensure that all of our students are receiving a high quality education. We support all students in this way by a staffing model that hires high quality teachers who receive ongoing coaching cycles and professional development. Additionally, our teachers instruct using top-tier Common Core Standards (CCS) aligned curriculum, with supplemental material that is personalized to each student's levels.

For more information about the resources, specific strategies, and tailored school goals, please review the School Performance Plan on your school's website. Additionally, your school's rating report is available at nevadareportcard.nv.gov. Or you may contact Karli Casto, Founding Principal at kcasto@pilotednevada.org

Lastly, parent and family engagement is critical to your child's success. You are welcome and encouraged to become involved in the academic progress of your child's school. Please visit your child's school for information about parent and family engagement opportunities.

Sincerely,

Naomi Wills

Naomi Wills
Operations Manager